

Annual Work-a-thon for Peace and Social Justice Sat., May 31, 2014

Project CENTRO CULTURAL DE LA RAZA
Site: BALBOA PARK, SAN DIEGO

THERE ARE TWO WAYS YOU CAN HELP:

- 1. Volunteer for a day of community service at the Centro Cultural de la Raza, an alternative space that encourages and facilitates artistic growth and cultural interchange in the San Diego/Tijuana region. The Centro's mission is to create, preserve, promote and educate about Chicano, Mexicano, Latino and Indigenous art and culture.
- 2. Sponsor a volunteer worker. Your donation will give encouragement to those contributing their labor and also benefit two non-profit groups: the Project on Youth and Non-Military Opportunities (Project YANO), and the Peace Resource Center of San Diego (see below).

WORK-A-THON VOLUNTEERS: The tasks that will be done on May 31 include interior painting of the gallery, organizing equipment areas, cleaning chairs, tables and floors, and light work in the cactus garden. Time frame: 9 AM-3PM (work all or part of this). Workers are asked to solicit sponsorships from family, friends, employers, etc., to match their labor with a donation. To volunteer, please return the bottom coupon by May 20 and a packet will be sent to you. You should begin collecting sponsorships now using the form on the back of this flier.

WORK-A-THON SPONSORS: Sponsors contribute money in support of a volunteer worker. You can sponsor a specific worker you know, or send the coupon below with your check and we will match you with a volunteer. Contributions are tax-deductible. Please make checks out to "PRC/Work-a-thon."

■ The Project on Youth and Non-Military Opportunities (Project YANO): Project YANO presents young people with alternatives for job training, community service and college financial aid, and encourages them to consider careers in peacemaking and social change. It also provides training and resources to similar organizations nationwide. www.projectyano.org

■ The Peace Resource Center of San Diego: Formed in 1980, the PRC works to promote peace and social justice by nonviolent means through a variety of community programs and activities. The PRC also provides resources and serves as a clearinghouse for groups and individuals on peace and social justice issues. www.prcsd.org

For more information, contact the Peace Resource Center (info@prcsd.org, 619-263-9301) or Project YANO (760-634-3604)

Please bring this sheet and any collected contributions with you to the work site on May 31.
